FEE ASSISTANCE LEISURE ACCESS PROGRAM

Fee Assistance is a program of financial support, for residents of Waterloo with low income that helps individuals participate in City of Waterloo direct and affiliated minor sport & arts programs. The program offers assistance in the form of an annual $300 line of credit. All applicants must complete an application form prior to registration to confirm eligibility. Eligibility is based on family income.

Fee Assistance Leisure Access Card applications are available at the registration tables, the City of Waterloo table or any City of Waterloo facility.

Please note: Fundraising are not eligible for Fee Assistance and are the responsibility of the family. These fees are to be collected by the sport group directly.

*Deferred payment option (post dated cheques) can be arranged with each sport group. This option DOES NOT require approval for Fee Assistance. Please speak to the sport group at the time of registering.

FEE ASSISTANCE STEPS FOR SUCCESS

1. Select the program/sport of your choice and register today! Show the cashier your Fee Assistance Leisure Access Card. You are not required to leave payment with the group at this time except for fundraising or rep fees. The Fee Assistance Program will not refund registration fees paid by applicant to the sport group.
2. After registration you must call the Fee Assistance Administrator at (519) 747-8512 and let them know which program/sport you registered for and the amount of the registration fee. Families will be responsible for paying any additional fees over and above their remaining line of credit directly to the sport organization.
3. YOUR CHILD'S REGISTRATION SPOT WILL NOT BE CONFIRMED UNTIL YOU HAVE CONTACTED THE FEE ASSISTANCE ADMINISTRATOR.

“Have a great season participating in your favourite program/sport!”
